Services for companies

We offer wide range of advertising opportunities for real estate related companies, (like agencies, office equipment companies, furniture warehouse equipment and machinery providers, manufactures and suppliers) to be efficient towards their target groups.

About us

Our team consists of local and international real estate, media and online experts. We set two goals while creating warehouserentinfo.com. First of all, we wanted to come up with a portal which purposefully satisfies the needs of the owners, landlords and the new clients. On the other hand, we wanted to open a door for available services among different countries in Europe, which provides unique opportunities and services.

Philosophy

The world is full of changes nowadays. This transformation also reflects in economy and real estate business. In today's markets, having a premium location does not necessarily mean that your property will be 100% occupied. It takes more than that to attract and retain tenants. It takes planned communication, advertising on the proper forums with the best tools.

Warehouse profile

The Basic package is an introduction of your warehouse characteristics. In order to speed up the warehouse renting process warehouserentinfo.com creates 2 other customized dynamic communication packages. The Standard and the Executive packages give access to list highlighting, warehouse recommendation and 'Warehouse of the week' feature. By increasing your visibility and exposure on the net and your brand awareness your warehouse will more successfully find its next tenants.

Company profile

Companies can choose between 2 packages in terms of the available services and appearances. The Basic package is a simple registration package including for example warehouse searching and selecting functions and allows registering and displaying rent transactions. The Standard package provides detailed company introduction with news publications, which directly appears as company datasheet in certain lists of the portal.

Warehouse offer

This can be found on the homepage under the search bar, in case of the subpages, on the left side in a box. It works like a banner, clicking on it will take the visitor onto the profile of the given warehouse.
